Winterguard - Paula Fannin

Ferndale, Michigan trip this Friday and Saturday. Staying in Troy, Michigan.

Kiski show on March 31. Will have a meeting for all the chairpersons. Musical is the same night, there will be some overlap. Jody to bring the 50/50 tickets. Still need help that day, especially parking. Will sell Dairy Queen treats; will take back any unsold treats.

Vice President - Jay Morgan

Open positions on Board: Vice President, Ways and Means, Winterguard Assistant. (Rita Aber, board rep.). Nominations March 21, vote April 18, shadow in May.

Budget presentation April 18, vote May 16.

Music Dept. copier became off-limits to the band boosters at the end of band camp, leaving us with a printing problem. Canon Laser Printer, with 3 year warranty, was purchased for $350 ($600, less $250 rebate), along with a $160 toner cartridge. Printer will collate, and print front and back. Will be locked in the Booster closet for chairpersons, newsletter, etc. Will not be kept on school property during the off-season.

President - Jody Meredith

A letter was sent to website from a student at Center High School on behalf of a student involved in a serious car accident in January who is a fan of the Kiski Area Marching Band. She was requesting anything that we could send to cheer up her fellow student. We are sending, through the Center High School Guidance Office, a shirt, bag and mug. Will make a CD of our music to send. He is in Center High School Marching Band and is Vice President of his senior class.

Director - Shawn Pityk

Spring Concerts: (Paula Durkin will promote)

Feb. 24: IUP Percussion Clinics, split concert: IUP & Kiski

March 15: Kiski Jazz Festival (professionally recorded)

April 4: Adjudication

May 24: Jazzarama

Sept. 8: Kiski Competition

Regionals: Youngstown Oct. 6, Towson Oct. 20 (PSAT day, students to take test offsite).

New Business:

Gina Scheller offered to send out an e-mail to booster members to remind them of upcoming booster meetings to improve attendance. Jody Meredith has the master list of e-mail addresses that she sends out as a bcc to booster members.

Next General Membership meeting Wednesday, March 21, 2007 at 7:30 p.m. in the Band Room.

Respectfully submitted,
Sandy Kline, Secretary
